Vets Choice Rookie

There's nothing like the excitement of a new pet. They're a brand-new member of the family, and there's lots of exciting moments to look forward to.

While our pets are young, it's easy to think they're indestructible. But puppies and kittens get into mischief – they chew on and swallow things they shouldn't, leap off of things a bit too high, and are learning to interact with their new environment and learn their limits.

When these limits are pushed a bit too far, pet insurance can be invaluable. Our free 28-days is there to help new pet owners protect their pets, while adjusting and enjoying their new life with them.

What is Vets Choice Rookie?

Vets Choice Rookie is a free 28-day policy available exclusively through partner vets for puppies and kittens between eight weeks and six months old.

Designed for the young ones, this free cover is packed full of features such as:

One day waiting period for accidents

Two day waiting period for illnesses

No commitment to continue after 28 days

Third-party liability cover

Aggregate limit of $4,000

The Vets Choice Rookie policy covers the same specified illnesses listed under our Vets Choice Pro policy, minus cruciate ligament conditions. You can view the full list of specified illnesses for our Vets Choice Pro cover at vetschoice.net.au

Who is Vets Choice insurance for pets?

As the only insurer endorsed by the Australian Veterinary Association (AVA), Vets Choice was built to ensure pet owners have access to pet insurance that's created by vets for pets. Every aspect of our policy is informed and shaped by the input of hundreds of Australian vets, to make sure it covers the accidents and illnesses that real pets face.

We're 100% Australian owned, and a product of Guild Insurance, the trusted partner of the AVA for over 25 years.

How do I sign up?

To sign up, speak to your local Vets Choice insurance for pets partner vet. Your vet will need to complete a quick health check form to make sure your little one is happy and healthy. Once the health check form is completed and supplied to Vets Choice, your cover will begin.

What happens after 28 days?

Before your policy ends, you'll be contacted to discuss how your new pet is going. We'll expect to hear all the cute and funny stories, so don't hold back!

You'll also be given the opportunity to upgrade to Vets Choice Pro or Vets Choice Elite to ensure that your pet remains covered for life.

There is no obligation to upgrade, and if you choose not to, the cover will simply expire after 28 days.

See the full list of features and benefits for Vets Choice Pro and Elite online.
